H. Exclusion or Adjustment of Parent Income

The amount of income used in the award calculation may be adjusted if the parents are deceased, were never married, are separated or divorced, or are disabled. In the following instructions: "custodial" refers to the parent with whom you live, who exercises custody if you are a minor, or who would exercise custody if you were a minor; "non-custodial" refers to the parent whose income you are requesting be adjusted.

Deceased - If one or both of your parents are deceased, check the appropriate box "1" and indicate the month and year. If the death occurred on or after January 1, 2019, all parental income must be reported in Section G; however, only a portion of the deceased parent's income will be used in the award calculation.

Separated/Divorced - If your parents are separated or divorced, check the appropriate box "2" for the non-custodial parent and enter the month and year it occurred. If separation preceded divorce, enter the month and year the separation occurred. If the separation/divorce occurred on or before December 31, 2017, report the custodial parent's income in Section G and the amount of support received on your behalf during 2017 from the non-custodial parent in Section H. If no support was received, enter "0". If the separation/divorce occurred on or after January 1, 2019, income information for both parents must be reported; however, only a portion of the non-custodial parent's income will be used in the award calculation.

Permanently Disabled - If one or both of your parents is permanently disabled, check the appropriate box "3" and indicate the month and year the permanent disability occurred. Income information for the disabled parent must be reported in Section G, but only a portion of it may be used in the award calculation.

Never Married - If your parents were never married, check the appropriate box "4" and report income information for the custodial parent in Section G.

Stepparents - If the surviving/custodial parent married before January 1, 2018, you must also report income information for the stepparent. Enter that information in Section G. If you are reporting both a stepparent's income and non-custodial parent's support, enter the stepparent's income in Section G and the support amount in "Support Amount" boxes in Section H. Enter the stepparent's Social Security Number (SSN) in the Affirmation area.

I. Adjustment for Other Family Members Attending College

This adjustment reduces the amount used in the award calculation and may result in an increase in the amount of award. To claim the adjustment, you must report the name, Social Security Number, and relationship to you of all other family members who will be full-time matriculated students attending a college or other post-secondary school for at least one term of the 2019-2020 academic year. Do not list yourself, anyone who is enrolled in an elementary or secondary school, or anyone who is not matriculated on a full-time basis. (NOTE: If you are a dependent student, you may only claim the adjustment for other family members who are also dependent upon your parents. If you are an independent student, you may only claim your spouse and/or your dependent children.)

3=parent/stepparent; 4=child/stepchild; 5=other.

AFFIRMATION - Who must sign?
